

Face of Gold

Hello 'Ahumani' Greetings

My name is Randy'L HeDow Teton, and I am a proud member of the Shoshone-Bannock Tribe in Fort Hall, Idaho. I am the youngest and only-living model on U.S. currency. I am the model for the Sacajawea Golden Dollar that was released to the public in November of 1999. I represent the preservation of culture and traditions of Indigenous people.

I will be touring the United States in the summer of 2010 and would like to share my unique story, with your tribe, of how I became the youngest and only living model on U.S. currency. As a Native American woman, I am proud to share my story with the hope of dispelling stereotypes and encouraging our youth 'to wish upon a star' in achieving greatness.

The tribal perspective of Sacajawea, of who she was, how she lived, and what happened to her after her Lewis & Clark Journey is brought to life in my presentation. I also make presentations on healthy bodies and minds; Native American women in leadership and entrepreneurship; the importance of culture and higher education; drug and alcohol abuse; peer pressure and teen pregnancy, and I would also love to be your event facilitator. Since 2000, I have shared the story of Sacajawea at numismatic workshops and coin shows across the country.

For booking dates, rates, and for more information, my contact information is:

Randy'L Teton, model for Sacajawea Golden Dollar

Contact via email at booking@faceofgold.com

www.faceofgold.com